

Norfolk Way Innovation Awards - 2016

Categories

1. Outstanding contribution to Science/STEM subjects at Key Stage 2

This could be a student who has made enormous progress, attended after school clubs or has shown great potential

2. Outstanding contribution to Science/STEM subjects at Key Stage 3

As above

3. Outstanding contribution to Science/STEM subjects at Key Stage 4

As above

4. Most Innovative Junior School Science/STEM Project

This could be a school project that has "thought outside the box" or been surprisingly simple, or a project that has had surprising results

5. Most Inspiring Junior School Teacher

Is there someone in your school that deserves special recognition?

6. Most Inspiring Secondary or Sixth Form School Science/STEM Teacher

This could be a member of your team who runs extra clubs or who just deserves a special mention?

7. Best STEM or Nuffield Crest 'A' Level Project

Last year, the joint winning students showed an exceptional understanding of their subject

8. Best Idea for a Commercial Innovation *

Last year, the winning student had done a lot of work around QR codes

This year the winner of the best idea for a Commercial Innovation will receive a grant of £250 towards getting the business started as well as 12 hours of 1-1 business support free.

The Norfolk Way

A not-for-profit social enterprise founded by George Freeman, MP with local businesses, promoting a vibrant rural economy and enterprise in Mid-Norfolk.